SECURITY PATROL MEMORANDUM NO. 9

TO: Platoon Leaders
SUBJECT: Air Raid Drill 5 November 1953

1. The general air raid drill will be signaled on 5 November 1953 by a "Red" alert at 10:00 a.m., which will call for the movement of all personnel to building shelter areas. Prior to the "Red" alert, a confidential "Yellow" alert will be announced to key personnel of the various Government agencies. At that time, Platoon Leaders will be alerted and certain specific orders will be given which will start preliminary actions of the patrol in advance of the 10:00 a.m. assembly. Such preliminary actions will be described below. The Commanding Officer will order the Platoons assembled and deployed before the "Red" alert, and upon sounding of the "Red" alert, which will be signaled by the building alarms, the Emergency Security Patrol will go into general action at its variously assigned locations.

2. Standard equipment as carried at the assembly drill on 15 October will be used. The orders of the Commanding Officer regarding firearms are repeated:

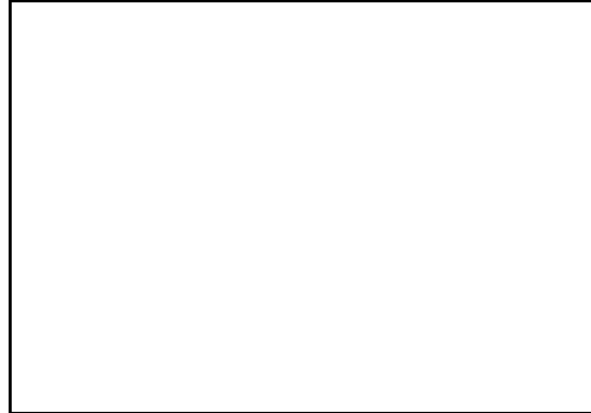

- a) Two loaded magazine clips will be carried in magazine clip pouch.
- b) Unloaded magazine clip will be carried in place in the magazine of the unloaded pistol.
- c) Five extra rounds of .45 caliber ammunition will be carried in the coat pocket.
- d) Web belt with holster and magazine clip pouch will be worn under coats.

3. Upon receipt of the "Yellow" alert as referred to above, the Commanding Officer will order advance deployments by:

4. Before the sound of the "Red" signal, the Commanding Officer will order the Platoons to assemble at the rear of "I" Building at the same locations assigned for the assembly of 15 October, namely:

Command Post	Opposite Wing 5
Platoon I	Opposite Gate 4
Platoon II	Opposite Wing 4
Platoon III	Opposite Gate 5
Platoon IV	Opposite space between Wings 5 and 6
Platoon V	Opposite Wing 6
Platoon VI	Opposite space between Wings 6 and 7

5. Platoon Leaders will assemble platoons and call rolls as fast as possible after being alerted. They will then report to the Commanding Officer concerning the status of their platoons.

6. Upon order of the Commanding Officer, platoons will be deployed to the following area locations and Platoon Leaders will establish Command Posts and assign personnel to vantage points at each building in the area. In addition to area assignments and outlying assignments given in Para. 3, it will be noted that some platoons also have certain individual nearby building assignments which are separated from their areas.
